The accommodation was exemplary in the four hotels we stayed in and every tour was terrific with the highlight for me being the Saigon River dinner cruise. The food everywhere was fantastic. Thank you for arranging such a great holiday.

Asia Vacation Group Customer
Located in Southeast Asia, Myanmar or Burma is famous for the untouched landscape and impressive gilded pagodas. Since the country has just recently opened for tourism, there may be some lack of resources for tourists. The good news? Local lifestyles and attractions stay authentic and natural like they supposed to be. Yangon, Mandalay, Bagan and Inle Lake are the most popular destinations in the country. Travellers usually get amazed by the peaceful air and ancient pagodas covered in real gold.

Weather

Myanmar is considered to have 3 seasons, the cool season (Nov-Feb), the hot season (Mar-May), and the rainy season (June-Oct). The ideal time to visit this country is between Nov-Feb.
1. Mandalay
This last royal capital of Myanmar is located on the east of the Irrawaddy River, well-known as a religious centre for Buddhism as well as renowned for Mandalay Hill, where Burma’s largest Buddhist bible is kept.

2. Inle Lake
Belong to the NyaungShwe Township, Inle Lake is a freshwater lake inhabited by hundreds of stilt villages. Here you can discover the innovative rowing technique using one leg to control the paddle (oar) by the locals.

3. Bagan
Situated on the banks of the great Irrawaddy River, Bagan was once the glorious capital of this former kingdom. It is home to over 2,200 Buddhist temples and ranked as one of the most incredible archaeological sites in Asia.

4. Mrauk U
Located in Rakhine State, Mrauk U is an important archaeological town, featuring as the fortress to protect the sacred temples built by the powerful Mrauk U Kingdom from the fierce winds.

5. Ngapali
A premier beach destination is said to be named after a homesick Italian, offering a stretch of astonishing white sand beach along with a string of luxury resorts. It is a great spot to relax and chill out during the holiday.

6. Yangon
Myanmar’s former capital is the largest city in the country, possessing an array of gilded religious shrines and the timeless colonial architectures. This antique city thrives by night with vibrant streets filled with stalls selling everything.
There are much more beautiful destinations not being mentioned here. Visit our website to explore the bigger Myanmar.
Yangon offers a large number of monumental historical buildings and captivating shrines such as Shwedagon Pagoda (one of the most gilded Buddhist sites in Southeast Asia), Maha Bandula Park, Sule Pagoda, and more. Visitors may pour water on little Buddha statues for lucks and prosperity at some pagodas.

Take a historical walking tour of Yangon

Eat gold leaf rice

Unique Myanmar is a restaurant in Mandalay that is famous for its gold leaf rice. Since it is not overpriced, anyone can have a taste of this interesting and fancy dish. This goes great with pork curry.

Take a long-tail boat tour around Inle Lake

The lake is the 2nd largest lake in Myanmar and inhabited by stilt houses and floating gardens. Moving around on long-tail boat will let you capture the most gorgeous pictures of nature and human beings. Plus, the trip is ideal for bird lovers since over 500 species of birds are living in the area.
Cross the magnificent U Bein Bridge

U Bein Bridge stretches 1.2 kilometres over Taungthaman Lake, once considered as the longest bridge made out of teak wood. The wood is claimed to be built from the discarded palace of Amarapura so it may get rickety while walking on it. Best time for a photo is probably after sunrise and before sunset.

Take a hot air balloon ride

Hot-air balloons flying over Bagan is one of the iconic images of Myanmar. Get ready to enjoy the ancient beauty of Bagan with thousand-year-old pagodas, temples and the mighty Ayeyarwaddy River from the air. The ballooning season is usually short, typically running from mid-October to mid-March.

Buy some gems

No kidding. Bogyoke Aung San Market in Yangon is a huge centre for trading gems, jades and jewellery. Beside gilded pagodas, Myanmar is also famous for the mining of gems. In fact, the gems in Myanmar possess high quality yet very affordable price. A bracelet of tiger eyes can be as low as $5.

Explore Mrauk U on a horse carriage

This is a very ancient town with temples that take the shapes of forts and bunkers and the landscape that resembles the countryside with great exposure to nature. Riding a horse carriage will get you to go back a few hundreds of years in time.

MOVING AROUND

AIRLINES
Major airlines in Myanmar include Myanmar Airways, Air Bagan, Air KBZ, and Air Mandalay. The destinations are limited to Yangon, Heho, Mandalay and Bagan. Most airlines have not offered online booking yet, so booking shall be made through a travel agent, hotel or at the airport. Prices are quite high.

TAXI
Taxi is the most common transportation for travellers in Myanmar. The drivers are usually willing to go long routes (inter-city) as well. It typically costs USD1-2 for a short ride. You should always confirm the cost before getting in a car.

TRAIN
Myanmar railways are less comfortable than others in Southeast Asia. Tickets range from USD10-15 for long distance journeys and can be purchased at the station. Classes on a train are divided into ordinary class (simple wooden seats), upper class (comfortable, large seats), standard sleeper (including four-berth and two-berth compartments) and special sleeper (a separate compartment with four berths, a toilet and entrance door).

BUS
Bus is the most popular transportation in Myanmar. Different bus options include local bus, the 32-seat minibus and luxurious bus. For long-range bus, the vehicles are usually equipped with great accommodation such as reclining seats, blankets, water, snacks and friendly service. The average cost for a 12-hour trip is USD20.

TUK-TUK
Similar to the tuk-tuk in Thailand, this type of vehicles can carry multiple passengers. The price is quite cheap. It costs USD0.5-1 for a short ride on average. However, not all regions have this kind of transportation.

PICKUP TRUCKS
This is also another economical solution for travellers. Passengers sit on the back of the trucks. It costs about USD0.5 for an in-town trip and a few US dollars for an inter-towns trip. Prices are usually non-negotiable.
FEELING HUNGRY?

01 Shan-style Noodles
Best place to get: Inle Lake, Pindaya, and Taunggyi
A delicacy includes rice noodles, thick chunk of marinated chicken or pork, pickled veggies and broth.

02 Tea Leaf Salad
Best place to get: Anywhere
A Myanmar speciality made by mixing shredded cabbage, nuts and peas, sliced tomatoes, chilli and bitter leaves.

03 Burmese Curry
Best place to get: Bagan
A special curry contains pork, fish, shrimp, beef or mutton, served with rice, a dish of fried vegetables and a bowl of soup.

04 Shan-style Rice
Best place to get: Yangon
A favourite dish of the Shan (one of the country’s Buddhist ethnic groups) combines sticky rice cooked with turmeric and topped with fried freshwater fish and garlic oil.

05 Myanmar Tea
Best place to get: Anywhere
While milk tea is very popular among teenagers worldwide, Myanmar milk tea is still unique with a rich flavour of tea and mellow sweetness of condensed milk.
STAY HEALTHY

Myanmar's health system lacks the availability of modern medical equipment. Therefore, Myanmar’s citizens and foreigners tend to fly out to neighbour countries such as Thailand, Malaysia, India and Singapore for treatments. Major specialist hospitals are available in big cities such as Yangon and Mandalay. In an emergency, you must quickly get transferred to the nearest medical centres for treatment. We highly recommend that all travellers should purchase travel insurance for peace of mind.

For voice/data, it may cost USD10 for 50 minutes calling and 5GB of data (Telenor).

Popular Network Providers are MPT, Ooredoo, and Telenor.

STAY SAFE

Myanmar is considered to be a safe place for tourists. Scams and pickpockets rarely happen to visitors. Touts are probably the only things bothering travellers. Just do not buy valuable stuff on streets or simply listen to what the touts have to say.

Beware of snakes and bugs as Myanmar has a high incidence of deaths by snakebite. Mosquitoes may be your issues if you are not used to it.
This festival is typically held for 3 days in October to welcome Buddha returning to mortal land from heaven. During these days, there are many light shows and music shows on the streets to be enjoyed. Also, the famous temples in each area will be illuminated by thousands of sparkling lights and candles, creating a truly awe-inspiring sight. Buddhists usually visit pagodas to pay respects to the monks and offer food.

- Thingyan Water Festival

  This is the most expected national festival is expected for the year. Held for 3 days in mid-April, “Thingyan” means the changing, as an annual purification ritual to wash away the past sins. - Thadingyut Festival of Lights
  October - Nationwide
